Traditional Massage Spa Competition - 2

Massage is the backbone in the SPA industry. A variety of massage techniques are offered at the SPA and Wellness Center, suitable for treatments with concepts that are in-line with the ideals of SPA or Wellness Center. As an organization that emphasizes spa therapists, Indonesia Spa Therapist Association (ASTI), realizes the importance of observing the competency of spa therapists. Hence, the 2nd Traditional Massage SPA Competition is organized with the hope that it will become a platform for spa therapists to display their technical abilities while also serving as a reference that will bolster improvements to the performance of the spa industry in Indonesia.
